PRE-SERVICE MEDITATION

Psalm 37:7-11

⁷ Be still before the LORD and wait patiently for him; fret not yourself over the one who prospers in his way, over the man who carries out evil devices!
⁸ Refrain from anger, and forsake wrath! Fret not yourself; it tends only to evil. ⁹ For the evildoers shall be cut off, but those who wait for the LORD shall inherit the land. ¹⁰ In just a little while, the wicked will be no more; though you look carefully at his place, he will not be there. ¹¹ But the meek shall inherit the land and delight themselves in abundant peace.

"I Lay My Sins On Jesus"

1. I lay my sins on Jesus, The spotless Lamb of God;
He bears them all and frees us From the accursed load.
I bring my guilt to Jesus To wash my crimson stains
White in His blood most precious Till not a spot remains.
 3. I rest my soul on Jesus, This weary soul of mine;
His right hand me embraces, I on His breast recline.
I love the name of Jesus, Immanuel, Christ the Lord;
Like fragrance on the breezes His name abroad is poured.
4. I long to be like Jesus, Meek, loving, lowly, mild;
I long to be like Jesus, The Father's holy Child.
I long to be with Jesus Amid the heavenly throng
To sing with saints His praises, To learn the angels' song.

P In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

We come before God recognizing that we are sinful and daily need His forgiveness.

Mon Isaiah 56:1, 6-8 Obviously, people who honor God and live as His dear children reach out to others—in this case, foreigners, who are then nurtured by the Holy Spirit to join themselves to the LORD, to serve Him and to love the name of the LORD, to be His servants. It's very clear that God has always had a heart for non-Jews; since He loves them, God urges us to move forward in our mission endeavors to reach and rescue them. Yea and Amen!

Tues John 15:1-11 Father&Son are concerned about the health of their vines and maintain productivity by cleansing the vines with a pruning knife. More precisely, the pruning knife is the Word He has spoken to us (3), the words/message that remain in our hearts (7), God's cherished precepts (10). How else would you expect God to operate with His children but by His loving maintenance, to correct and care for us in His vineyard?

Wed 2 Corinthians 12:7-10 When I am weak, then I am strong is not a riddle. Just follow the line of thought: Jesus was protecting Paul from harmful pride by afflicting him with a thorn in the flesh. [All it takes is a sliver in thumb or eyelid to bring things to a screeching halt.] When Jesus declined to lift that infirmity, Paul caught on that Jesus was controlling his life for his spiritual benefit, and he got to really understand When I am weak, then I am strong.

Thurs Deuteronomy 8:1-3,11-20 What's good about the pandemic? It may be that God is using it to humble us and to test us, to make us know that we do not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceeds from the mouth of the LORD—as Jesus pointed out to Satan (Matt.4:4). How amazing that God makes use of a microscopic virus to remind us of our mortality and refocus our thinking to the LORD, who works in mysterious ways His purpose to fulfill.

Fri Matthew 15:21-28 Jesus was always on the move—even crossing borders in order to meet somebody who needed His help (21-22). But why did He seem so aloof? For the good reason that He was testing her willpower and her faith in Him, of course. The way to build muscle is to make muscles work harder than before. Same with the muscle of faith-dependence on God.

Sat Acts 16:6-15 North-west Turkey was bypassed (6-8) on this trip because of more urgent need farther west, in the borderlands of Europe. In response to God's call, the mission team sailed across the Aegean Sea to the seaport of Philippi. Although the missionaries did not find the man-of-the-vision, they discovered others whom God had prepared for the gospel, women who were meeting at Riverside Park for Sabbath worship. Apparently Lydia was a leader, and she convinced the missionaries to lodge in her home; she and members of her household became converts. Praise the Lord and hallelujah!

for refuge to Your infinite mercy, seeking and imploring Your grace for the sake of our Lord Jesus Christ.

C O most merciful God, who hast given Thine only-begotten Son to die for us, have mercy upon us and for His sake grant us remission of all our sins; and by Thy Holy Spirit increase in us true knowledge of Thee and of Thy will and true obedience to Thy Word, to the end that by Thy grace we may come to everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

P Almighty God, our heavenly Father, has had mercy upon us and has given His only Son to die for us and for His sake forgives us all our sins. To those who believe in His name He gives power to become the sons of God and has promised them His Holy Spirit. He who believes and is baptized shall be saved. Grant this, Lord, unto us all.

GLORIA PATRI

Latin for "Glory be to the Father"

The musical score for the Gloria Patri is presented in four systems. The first system shows the vocal line and bass line for the first phrase: "Glo-ry be to the Fa-ther and to the Son and to the Ho-ly Ghost;". The second system continues the vocal line and bass line for the second phrase: "as it was in the be-gin-ning, is now, and ev-er shall be, world with-out end. A-men." The score uses a treble clef for the vocal line and a bass clef for the bass line. The music is in a simple, homophonic style with a steady rhythm.

What is "Lutheran"? There are so many churches in our day, sorting them all out can be quite confusing! What "Lutheran" originally meant – and what it still means here at Immanuel – can be summed up with three basic ideas about how we gain eternal life:

- ✠ Grace Alone — Because we are sinners, we do not deserve God's love. Instead we deserve punishment and separation from God and His goodness, forever. But, in an unprecedented act of grace, God showered his sacrificial love on undeserving sinners. God the Father sent God the Son to suffer the full punishment for our sins, and to die in our place. Heaven's doors are open to us, not because of what we do for God, but because of what He has done for us through Jesus. Sinners are saved by God's undeserved love – by grace alone.
- ✠ Faith Alone — Jesus has suffered the full punishment for all people's sins. But this doesn't mean that all people will end up in heaven. The gift of salvation is free but is received only through faith. Faith isn't just acknowledging that God exists. Faith isn't trying to follow a bunch of rules and commandments. Faith means trust. Christian faith is freely given to sinners by God the Holy Spirit; it means having a heart which trusts that God kept His promise to send a Savior, and that Savior is Jesus.
- ✠ Scripture Alone — The only reliable way to find out what God says is through the Bible. The Bible was written by men but authored by God. Human ideas change. Logical conclusions can be wrong. Traditions can become outdated and unprofitable. Only the testimony of the eternal and all-knowing God is completely reliable. "Scripture alone" means that the Bible stands as the foundation for our thinking in every area.

word against the Son of Man will be forgiven, but whoever speaks against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven, either in this age or in the age to come. ³³ "Either make the tree good and its fruit good, or make the tree bad and its fruit bad, for the tree is known by its fruit. ³⁴ You brood of vipers! How can you speak good, when you are evil? For out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaks. ³⁵ The good person out of his good treasure brings forth good, and the evil person out of his evil treasure brings forth evil. ³⁶ I tell you, on the day of judgment people will give account for every careless word they speak, ³⁷ for by your words you will be justified, and by your words you will be condemned." ³⁸ Then some of the scribes and Pharisees answered him, saying, "Teacher, we wish to see a sign from you." ³⁹ But he answered them, "An evil and adulterous generation seeks for a sign, but no sign will be given to it except the sign of the prophet Jonah. ⁴⁰ For just as Jonah was three days and three nights in the belly of the great fish, so will the Son of Man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth. ⁴¹ The men of Nineveh will rise up at the judgment with this generation and condemn it, for they repented at the preaching of Jonah, and behold, something greater than Jonah is here. ⁴² The queen of the South will rise up at the judgment with this generation and condemn it, for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon, and behold, something greater than Solomon is here.

CONFESSON OF FAITH

The Apostles' Creed

The Apostles' Creed is a summary of Christian faith as taught by the Apostles.

- I believe in God the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth.
I believe in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord, Who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended into hell. The third day He rose again from the dead.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty. From there He will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit; the holy Christian Church, the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

HYMN: TLH #396:1,5,6 “Oh, for a Faith That Will Not Shrink”

1. Oh, for a faith that will not shrink Tho' pressed by many a foe;
That will not tremble on the brink Of poverty or woe;
5. A faith that keeps the narrow way Till life's last spark is fled
And with a pure and heavenly ray Lights up the dying bed.
6. Lord give us such a faith as this; And then, whate'er may come,
We'll taste e'en now the hallowed bliss Of an eternal home.

SERMON – James 3:1-12 Not many of you should become teachers, my brothers, for you know that we who teach will be judged with greater strictness. ² For we all stumble in many ways. And if anyone does not stumble in what he says, he is a perfect man, able also to bridle his whole body. ³ If we put bits into the mouths of horses so that they obey us, we guide their whole bodies as well. ⁴ Look at the ships also: though they are so large and are driven by strong winds, they are guided by a very small rudder wherever the will of the pilot directs. ⁵ So also the tongue is a small member, yet it boasts of great things. How great a forest is set ablaze by such a small fire! ⁶ And the tongue is a fire, a world of unrighteousness. The tongue is set among our members, staining the whole body, setting on fire the entire course of life, and set on fire by hell. ⁷ For every kind of beast and bird, of reptile and sea creature, can be tamed and has been tamed by mankind, ⁸ but no human being can tame the tongue. It is a restless evil, full of deadly poison. ⁹ With it we bless our Lord and Father, and with it we curse people who are made in the likeness of God. ¹⁰ From the same mouth come blessing and cursing. My brothers, these things ought not to be so. ¹¹ Does a spring pour forth from the same opening both fresh and salt water? ¹² Can a fig tree, my brothers, bear olives, or a grapevine produce figs? Neither can a salt pond yield fresh water.
